

HERITAGE PLACE

Owen Sound, Ontario

Heritage Place is the dominant centre in Grey Bruce counties and occupies a high profile position fronting Highway 26, one of two major highways accessing this area. The Centre lies in the heart of the area's primary retail node, benefitting from visitors who frequent this concentrated shopping area. While Owen Sound features a small population of about 33,000, the total trade area encompasses over 100,000 residents. The property also benefits from being the major gateway city to the Bruce Peninsula, a region popular in the summertime with boaters and cottagers.
